HOUSE COMMITTEE TO HEAR DELLINGER

NEW YORK (AP) — David Dellinger, one of the leaders of the antiwar demonstration in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention, said Friday he would testify next Thursday before the House Committee on Un-American Actvities.

"I won't take the Fifth Amendment because I believe the committee will indict itself," Dellinger said at a news conference.

T-P 9/28/68